

SARAH J. READ

SARAH READ advises individuals and firms on a range of law practice management issues and provides training programs and career coaching. She also is a mediator, facilitator and resolution counsel and is the immediate Past Chair of the Missouri Bar's Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee and a member of the Missouri Bar's Lawyer-to-Lawyer Dispute Resolution Panel. In addition to her law office, Sarah has a consulting firm, The Communications Center, Inc. (www.buildingdialogue.com) through which she provides communications training, consulting, and related facilitation services.

Ms. Read received her B.A. degree, cum laude, in 1978 from Yale University and her Juris Doctorate degree with the Order of the Coif from the University of Wisconsin in 1981. She practiced for many years in Chicago with Sidley Austin LLP. She received mediation training from the Center for Conflict Resolution in Chicago, attended the MIT-Harvard Public Disputes Program, and is a member of the American Arbitration Association's national panel of neutrals, and on the CPR Institute's Missouri panel. In 2004 and 2006 she was certified as a HBDI provider by Herrmann International to work with both individuals and teams. She is a member of the Missouri and Wisconsin Bars and the American and Chicago Bar Associations. She is admitted to practice in both state and federal courts in Illinois and Wisconsin, and the state courts of Missouri.
